New Exim Policy

4415. SHRI PRABHAKAR REDDY : Will the Minister of COMMERCE AND INDUSTRY be pleased to state :

(a) whether it is a fact that new Exim Policy for 2000-2001 has liberalized imports and lifted quantitative restrictions on imports on several items including consumer goods;

(b) if so, the reasons thereof;

(c) whether Government are aware that such a step would have an adverse impact on the indigenous industries; and

(d) if so, the steps proposed to be taken in this regard as safeguard measures against dumping ?

THE MINISTER OF COMMERCE AND INDUSTRY (SHRI MURASOLI MARAN): (a) to (d) In 1997 India had notified 2714 tariff lines to the WTO, imports of which were subject to quantitative restrictions for the balance of payment reasons. A plan for phased removal of these restrictions was also negotiated in 1997, which was revised in view of India's agreement with USA in December, 1999. In view of these commitments import restrictions on 714 tariff lines were removed on 31-03-2000. Some of these tariff lines pertain to consumer goods also.

All imports in the country are subject to applicable rates of customs duties and also subject to domestic laws, rules, orders, regulations, technical specifications and environmental safety norms as applicable to domestically produced goods. This should provide adequate protection to the domestic industry.

The imports are being closely monitored and government would strive to ensure through appropriate use of tariff mechanism that imports do not cause any serious detriment or injury to the domestic industry.

To provide protection against dumping of foreign goods, the Directorate of Anti-Dumping and Allied Duties, is already functioning in the Ministry of Commerce and suitable steps are being taken by the Directorate. In case of serious injury to the domestic market, safeguard duty can be imposed by the Safeguard Directorate in Ministry of Finance.
